

841 Huntington Ave,
Boston, Mass.

June 22, 1945.

Dear Mother.

I am only dropping a line to ask you to send me some clothes for my Confirmation. You see, I'm going to make my Confirmation a week from Saturday. I will my white dress, white shoes, white veil, white silk stockings. While I'm writing this note I want to ask to send me my red loffers so that I won't use the sandals out. My sandals are very comfortable, but I want them to last for long time and some handkerchief.

How is Dad and yourself? I'm fine. How is Duke getting along. Did the Patnode's come