Dear Daddy.

Just a few lines to let you know that I'm fine. Monday night I didn't feel too good. I had the pains that I had last year.

Dad it took you a long time to answer my letter. I wrote to Aunt Mary and Uncle Charly Sunday. This week I made a list of the persons that I'm going to write to Sunday night I stated to write to one of my friend down at Stella Maris. To Ma Lante Bia too, but I didn't know her address before I received your letter Tuesday. I'm glad to know about the surprise party for Bill. What kind of a party is it going to be anyhow?

Dad. when you are coming next are you going to bring me a dress and shoes, because you know the brown shoes I had, will
