May 14/1944

Dear Dorothy:-

Here it is Sunday nite and my first Mothers Day. And a very happy day it was too. Specialy because I had recieved a very nice note and two pretty sachets from my daughter. Thank you very much and let me tell you that you made Dad and I very happy indeed with your thoughtfulness. It is all those little thoughts that make life so very precious in a family.

I had my mother and Val over for supper. Also the