Sweetheart this is the week that the Army will conduct some very important tests with a special kite that I made - pray that everything goes well. If the Army accept this kites all the allied countries will accept them and it will help win the war.

I'm sorry but I have no more of your names on stocking cloth, I am inquiring and will get some.

Have you enough clothes to last until the 1st week of October - because I will bring the rest with me when we go up.

How do you like the convent where you are - do you like your teachers, your music instructor, what do you do - for recreation. Are there many students. How big a school is it.

Yes your Dad is saving for Billie I'm sending you $1.00 for yourself this has a value of about $1.10 in Canadian.
