

ones that you know about. but I'm sure you could fly them. Yes if the Army of the U.S. accept them, it means that all the Allies will accept them, and they will then be accepted by the Navy & Marines.

And if they do not take them, well that we are not going to change our course of life, because my actions are not planned on the success of these kites. But it will give us our own home should it be accepted.

This week I have been very busy I have worked most every evening and I did not get around to send the thing that you ask. I plan on doing this Sunday when Billie and I are at the house.

You sure are improving, your letter has more than one paragraph. nice work.

When you come home at 6:30 you will have a nice room of your own and all shined up. in fact the whole house will be different
