

I hope it is a grand one.

About the gifts you asked for. Dad and I talked them over and we think that if you were to buy a ring we would like it to be a very nice one. And that you had better wait a while and then get a really nice one. But I will go shopping for a billfold just as soon as I get out of the store and send it right out to you.

I hope St Antoine is in good humor and favors you. So that you will
