

the grip and not hearing from you sure does not help.
If you only knew how sad he looks when I get home from work and tell him no mail from Dorothy. Last nite he cried. Darling you have such a good Dad and he loves you so very much please try hard to make him happy. It takes so little to please him. Remember there are a great many little girls that have not got Dad's love as good as you.

Well to-day is income tax day and they sure take